"BIG SIX."

Decision of the Court of Appeals in the Case.

TWEED TO BE RELEASED.

Dissertation on the Writ of Habeas Corpus.

THE TICHBORNE CASE NOT A PRECEDENT.

Tweed To Be Rearrested on Civil and Criminal Process.

THREE MILLIONS BAIL DEMANDED.

How the News Was Received in the City.

Once again the citizens of New York have an opportunity of reopening and discussing the Tweed case in all its bearings, for the news hich came yesterday to the city to the effect that William M. Tweed had been discharged by order of the Court of Appeals created a genuine sensa tion in the metropolis. It was stated that the Court of Appeals has reversed the derision of the lower or Supreme Court, in which Judge Noah Davis had given the Judgment that and made a twelve years convict of William M. I weed. Later in the afternoon the decision of the judges of the highest court of the State was telegraphed in juil and every detail of the rumor was confirmed. It was imperson in the streets, the cars, the ferryboats or they going to give him a chance to escape ?" Of course there were many deep and anxsympathizers to be found, among in particular, who and in nearly every instance it was noticed that those who wished to see Tweed free were loud in denunciation of Tammany Hall and John THE BALL OPENS.

was visited by a of the Tweed sympathizers, and held on any other charges, either of felony or er the enormous sums of money stolen. Some which is one of the monuments of his did not go into the Sheriff's waited outside and obable release. In all their discussions it was observable that they displayed an utier ig-A number of these people expected to see Tweed drive down to the courts in an open the old times, but he came not, and finally among the groups in the City Hall Park it was whispered IN THE SHERIPF'S OFFICE.

ed as soon as official notice was given in the regular way from Albany to the Warden of Black-Well's Island, in whose Pentientiary Tweed is confined and it was rumored that fresh criminal indictments had been prepared against him, and that his ball on civil suits alone would be so large hat Tweed would not be able to furnish it, and rsons of good repute whose real estate would umce in its aggregate to fill his bond.

presentative of the HERALD, who had heard ese different and conflicting rumors, called on seary inquiries as to the truth of the rumors. Major Quincy, who is Order of Arrest Clerk in the sheriff's office, furnished a copy of the order of resat for Tweed on the civil suits which are being Attorney's office in due time. Further Mr. Lyons could not say.

It was rumored last evening that Charley Devlin and several others had offered to go ball for Tweed, but of this there was no certainty or positiveness. It is certain, however, that a beach warrant for forgery has been issued against William M. Tweed, and that it will be served on him to-day, or the Deputy Sperif McGonigal has the other alternative or serving the order of arrest in the civil suits first. The order of arrest and bench warrant cannot be served at once, and it seems ourious enough that the bench warrant cannot be served by the detectives of the District Attorney's office, who are usually detailed to perform such duties. It was, however, stated yesterday afternoon that Detectives Fleia and Conners, of the District Attorney's office, were watening Tweed's movements in case of any mistake, and

The following is the full text of the decision as rendered yesterday in the case of William M.

Many (course, which can be should be about the property of the iegisaions shows that the true rate of the common law does not connenance the practice and the judgment in the case before us. I have examined with some care the the case before us. I have examined with some care the two contents of the common law as it existed in England in April 1779, or as it exists of the Rugfand in April 1779, or as it exists and its emission of the inginal in April 1779, or as it exists and its emission of the inginal in April 1779, or as it exists and its emission of the inginal in April 1779, or as it exists and its emission of the inginal in April 1779, or as it exists and its emission of the inginal indiction of the critical of the common in a single indiction. In the aggregate exceeding the numishrant present and its emission of the criminal interest as for the protection of those accused of crimes, requires a for the protection of those accused of crimes, requires a for the protection of these accused of crimes, requires a for its everal indiments can be protected by a sentence, the same in the aggregate distributing such victions upon the several counts, according to the demerits of the offences charged in cash, and cash and each and severy of the judgment was exceeded. There are not to the count of the counts, according to the demerits of the several counts, according to the demerits of the counts, according to the demerits of the judgment was executed. There are the court could act. The jurisdiction over the person of the court could act. The jurisdiction over the person of the court could act. The jurisdiction over the person of the condemned was exhausted as if no prosecution had ever been instituted against him. The judgment of the excess of paradiction, is not put to his writ of the excess of paradiction, is not put to his writ of the court could act. The jurisdiction over the person of the condemned was exhausted as if no prosecution had ever been instituted against him. The judgment is indicated by law and contravt to law is particularly judgment and judgment was provided t in our own courts from the organization of the judiciary of this State to the present time. Notwithstanding the time of the state of the present time. Notwithstanding the outer ferror to, nor do we find a single reported case in which cumulative sentences have been imposed on a conviction of several offences under one indictment, nor in which the present can did not include a conviction of several opinions, are capitaled in the opinion of we read opinions, are capitaled in the opinion of the sentences has some of the reported opinions, are capitaled in the opinion of my associate, Judge Allen. We then appeal to the experience of the members of our own of the control of the control of the control of criminal jurisdiction in this State, and some exercised the offee of public presentor. None of them, sneaking either from experience of the experience of sentences in the state of the control opinion in this State for the course now afternated to be suitable to being established, that there is no astherity in this state for the course now afternated to be suitable of the course of th